Africa Crisis Appeal

Location: Africa, Regional

Start Year: 2011

Status: On – going

PLEASE DONATE KINDLY

Project Overview

More than 12 million people have been affected by drought and famine across Somalia, Ghana, Kenya and Ethiopia. A deadly combination of successive failed rains and rising food prices has resulted in the worst drought the region has seen for 60 years, families across Somalia, Ethiopia and Kenya are struggling to find anything to eat or drink. Hundreds of thousands of livestock have already died. Food prices have rocketed. The UN has officially declared a famine in parts of Somalia.

Project Background

We are aiming to provide:

- Immediate food and water distributions in the affected regions
- Emergency food distribution in and around regions affected by drought and famine
- 10 mobile health clinics to assist in medical emergencies and provide immediate health cover and pre-hospital treatment

Objectives:

To improve and assist in the emergencies in Africa, we aim to work closely with the people of Africa and provide our full support:

- Medical Aid/Hospitals Rebuilding
- Education
- Food
- Shelter/Construction Materials
